7. SUCCESSION TIMETABLE

Within 1 week, Helen Jamieson would notify all clients by phone and email about her:

- a) temporary assumption of Radius' day-to-day operations or
- b) permanent succession as investment advisor for Radius' clients.

8. CONTINGENCY MANAGEMENT

Succession risk	Likelihood	Impact	Contingency
Helen Jamieson ceases her employment with Radius prior to implementation of succession plan	Unlikely	High	Kimball Halsey will hire another investment advisor representative or choose another registered investment advisor as the successor of Radius.
Helen Jamieson ceases her employment with Radius at the same time that the Radius succession plan begins	Highly Unlikely	High	Cynthia Tschampl Halsey is responsible for notifying all Radius clients and selecting another company as the successor of Radius.
Cynthia Tschampl Halsey and Helen Jamieson are not capable of starting the succession plan due to illness, disability, or death	Highly Unlikely	High	Clients know that they can access their accounts directly through Fidelity.com.
One or more of the clients refuse to take Helen Jamieson as a successor for Radius to continue providing investment advisory services.	Possible	Low	For temporary succession client(s) may access their accounts directly with Fidelity For permanent succession Client requests that Fidelity remove Radius Capital Management as an advisor on the account (i.e, completes Section 3 of the Fidelity Advisor Authorization and Termination form)

9. DISCLOSURE OF BUSINESS CONTINUITY PLAN

Radius provides the business continuity plan to clients at account opening and upon request. Radius also posts the Business Continuity plan on the website.

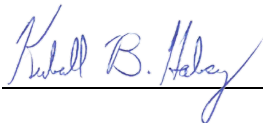

10. UPDATES AND ANNUAL REVIEW

Radius will update this plan whenever we have a material change to our operations, structure, business, or location or to those of the custodian. In addition, Radius will review this succession plan annually, during the month of July, to modify it for any changes in our operations, structure, business, or location or those of the custodian.

11. MANAGER APPROVAL

I have approved this Radius Succession Plan as reasonably designed to enable Radius to meet its obligations to clients in the event of a succession.

Kimball Halsey, President of Radius Capital Management, LLC
